The Hardware People

Any Person Who Has $10

Any person who has $10 and is able to save $5 per month $10 a day—can buy a lot in Red Deer West. Those who have more and are able to save more can buy proportionately more lots. Thus the plan adapts itself to everyone's circumstances.

The terms of the Red Deer West Monthly Payment Plan permits the man with small means to invest at once, and by putting aside part of his income regularly, to become the owner of a fine lot in a prosperous profit making property.

It is therefore no longer necessary to wait until you have accumulated considerable money for a third, half or full cash payment.

You may invest while you save.

$10 will turn the trick.

MRS. B. P. ALFORD Laid to Rest

The remains of Annie Elsie Alford, wife of B. P. Alford, of Red Deer, were laid to rest on Friday last, November 14th, in the cemetery. The funeral procession started from Stone's undertaking parlors, where the body had been lying, the members of the Venus Chapter, No. 2, of the Order of the Eastern Star forming up along side of the hearse, the husband, children, father and brothers and sister of the deceased joining in the procession as it passed their residence on Gaetz Ave., where it proceeded to St. Luke's Church. The service in the church was choral, and was conducted by the rector, Rev. C. W. Moore, the building being crowded to the doors with sympathetic friends. After the service the procession proceeded to the cemetery, followed by a large number of friends in carriages and on foot. The Rev. C. W. Moore concluded the service at the grave side, after which the choir of St. Luke's Church, of which the deceased had been a member for years, sang "Nearer My God to Thee." At the conclusion of the church service, the members of the Eastern Star carried out their beautiful service for the burial of the dead, Mrs. Alford having been a member of that Order. Miss I. McKinnon, Worthy Patron, conducted the service, assisted by Miss S. Day, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Miller, Miss Pidgeon, Mrs. McBride, Mr. Watt and Claire Stone, at the conclusion of which the members of the Order sang "Nearer My God to Thee." The following members of the Order acted as pall bearers: Mrs. Pidgeon, Mrs. K. Byers, Mrs. McElroy, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. Pettipiece. The casket was of black broadcloth with silver mountings, and had a cross of flowers on top from the members of St. Luke's Guild. The flowers and wreaths ordered by the Masonic Lodges and Order of the Eastern Star unfortunately did not arrive in time for the burial, but the Order placed four flowers of different colors to represent four points of the emblem star, and a sprig of evergreen to represent the fifth point in the grave, as their last tribute of respect for their departed sister. The chief mourners were the husband, B. P. Alford, Misses Vera Gladys, Sybil and Winnifred, and Charlie and Geoffrey, children; her father, Andrew Sibbald, and two brothers, H. E. Sibbald, and John Sibbald. Her son John McLaughlin of Calgary, a life long friend of the deceased, was also present at the funeral.

The deceased came to Alberta thirty-eight years ago with her parents, and for the past twenty-five years lived at Pine Lake and Red Deer. Mrs. Alford was one of the best known women in this district, always ready to give her time and energy to any good cause. She was an active member of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Luke's Church, and of the choir for years, and was held in very great respect, being a hard worker and always bright and cheerful, with a very kind disposition, and made a host of friends. While she had been in very indifferent health for the past twelve months, and had undergone a severe operation for cancer, her sudden death came somewhat as a shock, and the family have the sincere sympathy of all who know them.

72 DAYS AND NIGHTS ON DOORSTEP

Record Watch at Land Office

Yesterday morning John Piper, of Red Deer, was successful in filing on the S.E. quarter of 16-28-27, West of the 4th, for a homestead. The quarter is a very good one, and is situated 6 miles direct east of Red Deer. Mr. Piper has had his eye on it for a considerable time, and wrote the Department at Ottawa to have it thrown open for a homestead, it having previously been held for timber land. Mr. Piper took up his stand at the doors of the Dominion land office on September 7th, and has put in seventy-two days and nights' vigil to entitle him to the first chance of filing on the quarter. This probably is a record for holding down a position at the land office doors in 1913, and Mr. Piper is entitled to whatever there may be in it. He says that he would not care to go through as much again for a homestead, but he believes it to be worth at least $3,500 at the present time, and intends to commence building a permanent home upon it at once. He further says that he feels particularly grateful to the weather for keeping so fine and mild during the time.

University Extension Lecture

The second of the University Extension lectures will be held on Tuesday evening next, November 24th, when Professor Burgess will speak on Greek architecture. This should be a very interesting and instructive lecture, and no doubt a large number of citizens will turn out to hear it. Hour, eight o'clock.

Charged With Gambling

Four men were up before Justice Wallace yesterday morning charged with a breach of the peace by being found gambling on the premises of the Palace Billiard and Pool Hall. The Chief of Police proved that the premises were raided on Friday night last, and the accused were found gambling with cards, and $90 upon the table was seized as evidence. The accused pleaded guilty, and were fined $20 and costs each. Chief of Police Anderson feels satisfied that there is a large amount of gambling going on, and is determined to put a stop to it. He will leave no stone unturned to bring any person that he can lay hands on for gambling before the magistrates.

Parish Hall Minstrels

The performance given by the Parish Hall Minstrels in the Hall, Friday evening last, was well attended, and was quite a success. The songs, jokes and choruses were all new, crisp and amusing, and interested the audience to the end of the entertainment. The men were: Bones, R. Gee; Tambo, L. B. Griffith; Sam, C. Greenham; Rastus, E. Clarke; Interlocutors, M. Johnston, A. W. Ayres. The soloists were Dick Thompson, tenor, as Booker Washington; C. W. Moore, baritone, as Jackson Hopping, and Alice Taylor, bass, as Livingstone Cornerack. The solos were all well taken and brought forth applause. Harry Webb, as Mons. L'Arpaille, in his musical eccentricities brought down the house, but the best selection of the evening was the song and dance by E. Vineberg, who, as "Udallius Sussidus," was superb. He is a gifted artist in vaudeville, and has given the audience thrills as he performed his difficult parts. He will always be welcomed on a Red Deer platform. The Parish Hall Minstrels, composed of Mrs. Clarke, piano, Mr. Youmans, violin, and E. Brooks, drums, discoursed sweet music during the evening. The farce "The Black Branch of Promise" concluded the performance. This amusing skit was well taken and created considerable amusement, but showed perhaps a few defects, which will be remedied, we feel sure, as the Minstrels get more confidence in themselves. Altogether, the promoters are to be congratulated on this, their first effort, which shows them to be artists of no mean order, and capable of putting on a much more formidable programme at a future entertainment.

SUCCESSFUL MOOSE HUNT BY RED DEER CITIZENS.

A party of hunters, consisting of Fred Land, Frank Pettipiece, Herb Geissinger and Jesse Rutan, who left Red Deer three weeks ago today, returned to the city yesterday noon after having a most successful time among the moose, each one of the party succeeding in bagging a splendid specimen, the weights ranging from 1,000 to 1,400 lbs. Mr. Land considers the animal that fell to his gun has the finest specimen of a head that he has ever seen. It would fill a book to recount the troubles, trials and difficulties encountered by the party since leaving Red Deer, but each one feels he would not have missed it for worlds.

POLICE COURT.

John Fogelsberg was up before Justice Wallace last week for paying worthless cheques, to which he had forged the name of his late employer, John Lindman, of Burnt Lake. The accused was committed for trial and allowed bail of $2,000, $1,000 himself and another surety of $1,000.

Two drunks helped the treasury to the extent of $5.50.

It is reported that one man was eased of about $200 last week while bidding friends good-bye in Red Deer.

Municipal Elections

News on the subject of the municipal elections, considering the short time there is to spare, is very hard to lay hold of. Rumors are being circulated as to this man and that man being asked to stand, but nothing is definite outside of S. N. Carscadden's statement that he is in the field for Mayor. Mayor Galbraith has not yet stated as to whether he intends to run again or not; he is apparently undecided. To a certain extent he is under an obligation to Mr. Carscadden, who withdrew last year. But on the other hand there is the second term idea, which no doubt has considerable force. Mr. Galbraith has had a hard year as Mayor, and has attended to his duties in a most faithful manner. The names of R. B. Welliver, H. H. Gaetz and R. L. Gaetz have also been mentioned for Mayor, but are not taken seriously. For Councillors W. E. Trump has been mentioned, and W. T. Coote, who was approached last year, but who was not qualified at that time, is another name mentioned. There seems to be a holding back until the public meeting of ratepayers on Thursday week. In the event of Alderman Rottier not running again for the Council, it is thought that he will run for a vacancy on the School Board, and would certainly be a great asset to that place, although the News would regret his withdrawal from the Council. M. A. Munro is definitely in the field again for the School Board, while F. S. Simpson and J. A. Carswell are retiring from the Board after long service, the former having been on the Board for eight years and the latter six.

Armory to be Completed on Time

There is now every possibility that the new armory will be completed before Christmas. A delay in the shipping of the steel looked like causing a deadlock, but word has now come through that it is on the road, and expected to arrive in Red Deer today. Manager E. H. Harris is anxious to put on all the men possible to enable him to rush the contract through to completion. Capt. Moore is expecting to be able to commence training the squadron early in the new year.

Thanks Committee And Helpers

To the Editor of the Red Deer News. Dear Sir,—The undersigned are requesting to publish that the following committee who were good enough to arrange for a social dance in Penhold on November 7th, 1913, for the benefit of the young man who was accidentally injured about October 11th while working on a threshing machine, namely, Mrs. A. R. McKenzie, Mrs. D. Bethune, Mrs. Wm. Douglas, Mrs. J. Skinner, Mrs. N. Stewart and Mrs. T. Lee, and these ladies are to be congratulated upon the very successful results of the dance.

The committee desire to thank Mr. Carswell of The News and the many other friends who so generously contributed to making the affair a success.

The music was excellent, the lunch was in every respect all that could be desired, notwithstanding the large number that was present, the large and commodious hall being taxed to its full capacity, the use of which was also donated by Mr. McKenzie, for which the committee are very grateful.

The proceeds were one hundred and fifty-four dollars.

Signed, on behalf of the Committee, MARGARET BETHUNE, PEARL GRANT, Penhold, Nov. 12, 1913.

Marianne

A very enjoyable box social was held in the Marianne school house on Friday, the 14th, which was a pronounced success. The school house was crowded, and the concert furnished the audience with something exceptional. The training which the children had received at the hands of Miss Smith was something that astonished every person present, and the ratepayers of the district feel that they owe a great deal to Miss Smith for the efficient way in which she has conducted the school, and for the training of the children for the concert. They wish her a most enjoyable time on her trip east, and that she may return to them in the near future.

Mrs. Roland and daughter Alice, who have been visiting for the last two weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dick Heale, have returned to their home at Alix. They wish to thank the many friends of Marianne for the good time they have had.

Everything is reduced from 15 to 50 per cent. at Best's during their big sale.

Red Deer

Correspondence

To the Editor, Red Deer News.

Dear Sir—Your sporting editor deserves credit for his persistence in referring to the need of a skating rink in this town. So far, however, no results in a concrete form have been realized. Their still remains the sad fact that this fair city is sadly behind our neighboring towns in this particular form of healthy exercise and social entertainment.

The question is, how long is this inactivity along this line going to continue? How long must the young people of Red Deer who do not curl
be kept waiting?

Before stating my proposition, I should like to point out a few reasons why this matter is not being handled actively by the citizens and why it ought to be handled as a municipal enterprise.

In the first place, the majority of our prominent citizens, whose energy is at the back of all successful undertakings in this city, are members of the Red Deer Curling Club—a most successful organization, which owns its own property. To be correct, I should say that the property is owned by a few of the members of the Curling Club. These gentlemen who curl, are satisfied to curl, and whether they skate or not is a matter of indifference to them. I do not imply that should some action
be taken for the erection of a skating rink by an organized company, these gentlemen would not give their assistance. I rather believe they would in most cases. But the point is, the skaters will probably wait a long time for these gentlemen to take the initiative in this matter.

In the second place, the young men and ladies, boys and girls, who particularly need and desire the skating rink, are not so permanently located in Red Deer as the wheelers of the broom. They are here this winter but away next summer. They are not in as good a financial position to shoulder the responsibility of such an undertaking. In fact, they cannot do it.

The result is that if a skating rink is to be had for Red Deer, it must either be built by the city or by some private party or company.

The erection of a suitable building
by a private party or company is highly improbable, as it is very doubtful if the returns would warrant the investment. The city requires a large building, centrally located, for mass meetings of the citizens, and it is the most reasonable proposition all that the city erect such a building as will serve this purpose during the summer months, and during the winter may be leased to a private party as a rink.

There is no argument as to the wisdom of having such an institution, nor is it necessary to enumerate the many advantages. But I hope to be pardoned for referring to one which I consider very important. I refer to the activity of the band during the winter months.
Given a decent rink, there would probably be some inducement for the band to keep going throughout the winter, with the result that the boys would be in shape for the summer work. As it is, this organization is obliged to go to sleep like the beards during the winter and in the spring, practically commence all over again. The city loses in this connection. It is not fair to the band.

Again, it is very advisable that the skating rink, if built, should be centrally located. Were it to be built in the fair grounds, how many ladies from the north end of town, either with or without escorts, would care to go there to skate? Not many, especially on a cold night. If it is just a matter of expediency where
by the rink may be had this winter,
and the Exhibition Association have a building next summer, I rather think that the skaters would be prepared to wait another winter and be assured of a creditable rink in a central location.

My proposal is that the city purchase the necessary lots on the north side of Blowers Street, directly across the lane from the curling rink, and that a suitable rink be erected thereon by the city. The points in favor of this proposal are as follows: It will be central. The ladies whose husbands or escorts
have been cutting will not have far to go to the curling rink and, of course, vice versa. The city will require a central property such as this as a store yard, now that the old buildings on the city square
are to be removed, and this accommodation could be provided. And,
finally, the city will be greatly improving the appearance of this particular section.

There may be obstacles in the way of the Council in adopting this proposal, and if there are such, it would be gratifying to learn of same at the annual meeting of ratepayers which will probably be held shortly.

In the meantime, Mr. Editor, let us all imagine we have a splendid up-to-date rink built at this point, that we are tonight going to witness a champion hockey game between the Red Deer Invincibles and the Calgary Wanderers, and that any night we choose we may go there and have a skate, especially on Band nights. Then ask the question of our proposed candidates for Council:
Are you in favor, etc? Where there is a will, there's a way.

In closing I might just put the Council wise to a conspiracy which exists among the young ladies for the persecution of all Councillors who fail to give active support to this rink proposition, not as I have necessarily suggested, but in some form, a conspiracy which will eclipse
the past efforts of the suffragettes in old London.

Mr. Editor, Red Deer ought to have a skating rink, and it is to be hoped that the Council will at least signify their intention of building one, somewhere, some time.
Will you, as a member of next year's Council, kindly keep this matter to the front. Thanking you for your valuable space, I beg to remain,

AN OLD SKATE.

Sport Notes

There is already talk of the Australian cricketers visiting Canada again next year on tour. There is no doubt but what their previous visit last summer did a lot towards creating enthusiasm in cricket in this country, and other visits will surely help to put it further ahead.
While we are certainly in accord with these visits, we believe the game would become more popular if it was played in our public schools and universities, for it is among the young there we must look for cricketers, as well as in other sports. There is lots of room for improvement in all branches of sport, and the school is the place
to begin and carry it out.

The Edmonton people have fixed on the horse show arena at their exhibition grounds for skating and hockey.

It's a pretty hard task to write
of sport in Red Deer, for there never has been a time in this little city when there was less going on in the shape of sport. The only place open to the youth of Red Deer at the present, where they can rid themselves of a little of the sporting spirit which is found in every well balanced young fellow, is the billiard parlors. They are all right in their way, but it grows monotonous to be everlastingly potting a ball. What is wanted is some good outdoor exercise, and naturally the boys have been anxious to see the results of Aldermen Botterill and Lord's efforts
on their behalf for a skating rink.
It has come at last, and it is a pity that we are sorry for this, but will have to make the best of it for this year. There is no doubt that the Council as a whole are in sympathy with the object, and that they have done their level best to aid the building of a rink. We cannot expect more. We feel pretty well assured that next year there will be a different tale to tell, exactly the meantime it is pretty sure we shall get an open air rink anyway,
in some central position.

At last the curlers' banquet is scheduled to take place. Friday night next is the appointed time, and the Parish Hall the place. The entertainer will be the Ladies' Aid of St. Luke's Church. Don't you wish you were a curler?

Red Deer used to have a hockey team that could hold their own with anything between Calgary and Edmonton. Is it too much to expect another one for this season with an open air rink.

World's Prize for Best Wheat

At the International Dry Farming
Congress at Tulsa, Okla., Paul Gerlach, a German-American farmer, residing near Allan, Sask., on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, has captured the first prize for wheat in competition with the farmers of the world. He exhibited Marquis Wheat weighing seventy-one pounds
to the bushel.
Mr. Gerlach won a separator worth $1,250.00. In addition, Mr. M. Donaldson, Vice President and general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, has forwarded to Mr. Gerlach a handsome clock. This is designed to serve as a testimonial of the interest of Mr. Donaldson and the Grand Trunk Pacific in Mr.
Gerlach's achievement. A considerable amount of fame attaches to the winning of this prize, for Mr. Gerlach, who will be prominently exhibited by the Governments of Canada and Saskatchewan, and by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, in many places next year.

Hotel.

Patterson Bros. are hauling hay
south of here this week. They expect to reach Leslieville next week.

Miss Beatrice Foreman entertained quite a number of her friends at a skating party on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Card are at the Card hotel, visiting Mr. J. Card and family.

The C. N. R. have removed the steam shovel and closed the gravel pit for the winter.

Mr. Gorrie, Presbyterian student, preached in the Bethel Union church
last Sunday afternoon, and will preach every Second Sunday all winter.

HEARTS OF OAK
BEHIND THE GUNS.

The Advocate has been weeping on the bosom of Germany's shirt front, metaphorically speaking, for the past few weeks, and is still trying to prove that the British Empire is destined to pass on to ruin and decay as other empires have passed away, and cites as a point that while the British Isles have only 46 million people, Germany has 65 million, and therefore Britain cannot hope to maintain her supremacy on the sea.

If the Advocate studies history it will find that the heroes of the British race have always laughed at superior numbers. The average Briton will cheerfully take a drubbing if the other fellow can give it him, all things being equal, and shake hands afterwards. The Armada, the Nile and Trafalgar all show what the British fleet is against odds, and later the little band of heroes from Alberta who died almost to a man on the rocky veldt of South Africa when surrounded by twenty times their number of Boers, proves that up to the present time the same heroic spirit holds sway in the hearts of our people.

But why should the Advocate shut out the rest of the Empire from participating in the affairs of Great Britain? The thing is absurd on the face of it. It is the colonial units of the Empire that will save it from decay.

When the late Queen Victoria was asked by the Indian Prince for the secret of England's greatness, she handed him a copy of the Holy Bible on a cushion. Here we see the greatest sovereign the world has ever known, a greater even than Solomon, humbly bowing the knee to the King of Kings, and giving Him the honor which is His due, and so long as Great Britain is true to this act of our late beloved Queen, just so long will she be able to maintain the supremacy of the seas.

LOOK TO HOME.

The Alberta Liberal press are daily referring to the Macdonald election in another province, and holding up their hands in holy horror at what they call the corruption of the wicked Tories, while they have nothing to say of their own corrupt acts. Nothing that has taken place in years can begin to compare with the way Attorney-General Cross stood off investigation into the corrupt acts during his election before the dissolution of the Assembly. He tried to escape the hundreds of charges which, if heard, would have sent him to political oblivion, by appeal to a higher court until he could go no higher. Then it was absolutely necessary to call a session of the Assembly, as he could not be tried while that body was in session, and when the trial was finally fixed, he escaped by the House dissolving, and his seat was therefore automatically vacated, and the whole evil-smelling mess of political crookedness could not be exposed. To make matters worse, these same Liberals who are prating about Conservative crooked work actually again returned Attorney-General Cross to the Legislature, and he is the Attorney-General of this fair province today, and has the loyal support of these same people who never tire of howling at other people to cover up their own miserable misdeeds.

The Blind Guide at Rocky Mountain House says the editor of this paper is a Ball-Drake sausage. Well, Mr. Ball's sausages are chuck full of good, wholesome meat, therefore we are sorry we can't reciprocate. The verdurous person who runs the blind institution out west reminds us very much of an old-fashioned cow bell, because he is such a long-tongued, empty-headed beggar.

PROVINCE IS GETTING HOGGISH!

(Vegreville Observer, Liberal). The Provincial Government seems to be aiming at getting hold of everything in sight in the way of taxation. That would be quite excusable were it not that some of the taxes hereafter to be imposed, cut out the towns and cities from a certain portion of their former revenue; revenue to which they are entitled in all fairness and justice.

Take a concrete instance. The provincial license fees on hotels and wholesale liquor stores were recently boosted and municipalities precluded from imposing a separate fee. In Vegreville, this works out to a direct loss to the town treasury of $575 per year, that being the amount of municipal license fees imposed on the two hotels and the wholesale liquor store here. This deficiency will have to be made up by the ratepayers in some other way, that other way being an addition to their tax bills. Yet from the town and district of Vegreville comes by far the greater amount of patronage of the hotels and the wholesale liquor store, and the municipal fee was never more than a moderate return to the town from these places for the privilege of doing business. The Government has, however, grabbed even that modest amount from the town.

A similar principle, differing only in degree, has been put over by the Government in respect to moving picture theatre license fees. Why didn't they keep right on and impose a provincial license fee on all travelling shows, circuses, stock companies, and entertainments generally, which live, move and have their being through the cash and good-will of the residents of various communities. The province is getting this provincial license business down to a fine art. It may be necessary, but why not divide the money equitably.

Still another matter is that of the tax on Unearned Increment. A Conservative proposal made in the Legislature when this Act was under consideration was that a fair proportion of the revenue obtained under this Act should be returned to the community or municipality which created the value known as the unearned increment. Right there the Conservatives had hold of an idea which was the most easily justifiable of any ever brought out in any discussion concerning the Single Tax. Suppose a sale of land takes place this week in Vegreville in which the "unearned increment" is estimated to be $5,000; the tax would be $250, all of which the Government appropriated. Yet the Government had absolutely nothing to do, except in a very indirect sense, with the creation of that increment. It is distinctly and undeniably created by the community known as the Town of Vegreville, and the Town of Vegreville is, by the cold logic of Single Tax facts, entitled from the amount derived from the tax. Would they, or will they get it? They will not.

The only surprise is that when the Opposition in the House advanced this proposal, they did not press it more strenuously. It is true that there is nothing in the Act to prevent municipalities levying an additional tax, but if that sort of thing is to be done at all, it is better done by the Government, since the Government possesses the records of all land transfer transactions which take place in the province, and is therefore in a better position than any municipality to undertake the collection of the tax. Nevertheless, the Government is not entitled to keep the entire amount thus collected.

The Government may need the money, but they might be a little less hoggish about license fees and increment taxes.

Young People's Society of Valley Centre

The Young People of Valley Centre have organized a society for 1913-14 for the purpose of considering and discussing religious and literary subjects during the winter months. The aim and object of the Society is the moral, social and spiritual uplift of its members and adherents. The officers of the Society are:—Mr. Eakin, President; Mr. Whitmore, Vice-President; Mr. Purdie, Secretary; Miss Weston, Treasurer, with the following committees: Religious committee, Mr. Whitmore, A. Reay, Mrs. Janssen; Literary committee, L. Brown, Mr. Lindhardt, Miss Weston; social committee, T. E. Brown, W. Janssen, F. Moore; visiting committee, Miss E. Janssen, Miss B. Reay, Miss E. Bolze, W. Moore, Willie Reay and Cyril Rowell.

The following religious and literary subjects have been considered and discussed since organization: 1st "Dr. David Livingstone, medical missionary and explorer." 2nd "God's Helpers." 3rd "I believe in God." The above subjects have been handled—1st by Mrs. Janssen, 2nd by Messrs. Reay and Eakin, 3rd by Mrs. Rowell.

1st "Resolved that bachelors should be taxed." 2nd "Resolved that monarchical government is better than Republican." 3rd "Resolved that women should have the franchise." The affirmative side in the above debates has been defended, 1st, by L. Brown, Miss Weston; 2nd, by Mr. Purdie, W. F. Moore; 3rd, by Mrs. Rowell, L. Brown. The negative side—1st, by W. Janssen, Mr. Whitmore; 2nd, by Mrs. Janssen, T. E. Brown; 3rd, by Mr. Williams, W. F. Moore. The judges awarded their verdict in favor of the negative in first debate, and in favor of the affirmative in second and third debates. A social evening and supper was held under the auspices of the Society on the 26th ult., and was a decided success, considering the limited time available for the preparation of a programme. A unique feature of the evening was the dialogue acted by the pupils of the school, which convulsed the audience with laughter. Much credit is due Miss Weston for the way the children deported themselves, considering the short time available for rehearsals. Another conspicuous event of the evening was the musical selections from the great German composers and Italian singers rendered by Messrs. Jorgensen and Lindhardt's splendid phonograph. This item of the programme was a treat in itself, and worth coming some distance to hear. Gentlemen, don't forget to bring your phonograph to the social and supper on the 26th inst. The evening was also beguiled by a reading, songs and recitations given by other members of the Society. The President called for three cheers and a tiger for the ladies of the district for the splendid coffee and cake and other delicacies so amply and lavishly provided for the wants of the inner man. This request was responded to with a vim by the audience, the bachelors especially exclaiming in applause. The meeting closed with the National Anthem. At the meeting of the Society on the 12th inst., the violin solo of Messrs. Williams and Bolze, owing to the music book being unavoidably forgotten, was not rendered. Gentlemen, don't make this mistake again. At this meeting the President also called the attention of the members to the question of the annual Christmas tree for the entertainment of the children of the district, and it was suggested and carried that the committee of the Society co-operate with the Sunday School in the management of this affair. The Society meets on Wednesday evening, the 19th inst., at eight o'clock prompt, in the school house, and a cordial welcome is extended to all.

Sylvan Lake

The siding at the C.N.R. station is now completed, the station road graded, ditched and levelled, and a sidewalk laid down. The next thing to expect is the opening of the station to passenger traffic. Hope still fills our savage breasts.

In the matter of telephone service we at the Lake are very badly served. The only public telephone in the village is that in the office of the Sylvan Lake Hotel, a small compartment about 12 feet by 10, may be slightly larger, containing a registering counter and one or two seats for the use of any who may enter the hotel. Here, under great personal difficulties, one may telephone one's private business, to the great interest of the bystanders and to the vexation of the village at large. On the ringing of the telephone bell, I have myself experienced the rather astonishing apology of a man whom I was under the impression I was entertaining, under the guise of my conversation, an apology for cutting the interview short because he "wanted to hear" what was being said on the "phone." At the present time the hotel is closed, but there is a notice on the door to the effect that anyone wishing to use the phone may wrestle with it by applying at a house, whose usual occupants are now absentees, or by looking up another person who may or may not be on his premises when wanted. This, although unsatisfactory, does to a certain extent provide for the sender, but the poor, unfortunate caller may ring till the lady clerk at Red Deer has dropped beneath the stool in exhaustion before he gets a reply. This is not as it should be. Such a state of affairs is good neither for the telephone service nor for the village, and the sooner a properly installed service is organized with sound (and hole) proof boxes, the better for all concerned.

In addition to the station road sidewalk, another is being laid down from the lake front to the house of Mr. R. Archambault.

Messrs. Rousseau & Simon have carried through a considerable deal in cattle at Lacombe.

Mr. and Mrs. Golden have left on a visit to Edmonton.

Mr. Rolston leaves for Belfast, Ireland, early next month to visit his relatives, and Mme. Archambault will also leave on a visit to France about the same time.

SCHOOL BOARD

Interesting Report on Pupils' Plans for Life

Acting chairman R. L. Gaetz, secretary Munro, trustee Carwell and Principal McKenzie transacted the regular monthly business of the Public School Board on Wednesday evening.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Government grant for the first six months of 1913 was $1,273.40. The trustee officer reported 21 investigations, with 12 absences excusable, five of truancy and four Roman Catholic. One had moved; three were not right age, and nine had left district. Four children had returned.

Mr. John Malochy offered Passburg steam coal at $5.25, same as he was supplying to other large buildings. The Board had tried steam coal before, but steam coal would not work with it. It was decided to hold to Red Deer coal.

Inspector Boyce reported on the ward schools. The teaching was good, generally speaking, of all subjects and all classes. Several suggestions of the inspector as to minor equipment had been carried out.

ACCOUNTS.

Accounts passed:—Gaetz-Cornett Co. $20.55, W. E. Trump $7.30, Western General Electric $12.29, Parker's $2.40, Day Hardware Co. $3.00, McLenn Bros. $2.00, Smith & Gaetz $17.15, J. McVier $5, E. G. Johns $19.00, News Publishing Co. $3.75, M. A. Munro, insurance, $9.50, T. A. Gaetz $9.30, E. S. Hogg, bookcase, $15.00.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT.

Principal McKenzie reported the registered enrollment for October as 517, daily attendance 495, percentage 92.5. The corresponding figures for October, 1912, were 482, daily attendance 402, percentage 90. Only one of the rooms in the public school had a percentage under 90.

Miss Ebert's room, with an average of 94.06, won the shield for highest attendance in the Central school for October, and Miss Welton's room, with 96, for the ward schools. After this Miss Welton's room and Miss Myers' room will be entered into competition with Central school, and the school shield will be competed for by the three primary rooms.

The schools were arranging for the presentation of medals for the Provincial examination and field day on Friday, December 5, with a little concert in the evening.

Mr. A. E. Ottewill, Secretary of the University Extension work, was in Red Deer a few weeks ago and wished the Red Deer High School to enter a debating contest with the other schools of the province. The northern group of schools are to be Olds agricultural school, Didsbury, Stettler and Red Deer. Olds to compete with Didsbury and Stettler with Red Deer, the winners in each pair to compete again. The winner in this contest to go to Edmonton to have a final debate with the winners of the south, the competitors to be the guests of the University. The Red Deer School have decided to enter. As there will be some expenses in connection with this competition, and still it would be advisable to have free admission to hear the debates, it will appear to be necessary to ask the Board to assist by way of contribution for the defraying of the expenses.

The teachers from Grade V. up have been asked to prepare a list of the students, their ages and the occupation they would like to pursue. The results are placed before you for consideration. My intention in having these lists prepared is to see if there is anything that can be done in our schools to assist vocational work more than we are doing at present. There is one feature I would like to call your attention to, namely, that of fourteen in Grade XI, which certificate gives the lowest permanent license to teach, all are intending to follow the profession of teaching. Now it only seems reasonable that, when the High Schools that teach grades XI, XII, provide the teachers for the rural schools of the province, the grant to such High Schools should be considerably more than it is at present. Some more should be put on the part of such High School trustees to secure the increase.

The choice of the boys ran to cowboys, ranchers and farmers, all kinds of trades, railwaymen, travelers, merchants, lawyers, doctors, civil and electrical engineers and teachers. One boy intended to be an aviator, another a game warden, and a third a game warden or fire ranger. The girls' choice ran mostly to teachers of various kinds, nurses and stenographers, dressmaking and millinery had some call. An autokress, a foreign missionary, a stum worker, an elocutionist, and a designer of bookcovers were also choices, while one girl was qualifying for a suffragette.

The report was adopted. The Fire Chief had inspected the fire escape provisions of the assembly hall and reported them sufficient. The Principal discussed school gardens and organized play with a view next year of following up in that direction.

The Board adjourned at ten o'clock.

Special Notice!

The Annual Meeting of the Red Deer Agricultural Society will take place in the City Hall SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6, at Two o'clock, p.m.

175 LIVES AND ELEVEN SHIPS TOLL OF LAKES

Reports of More Disasters Sent

A total of at least 11 vessels, and 175 lives, were lost in the blizzard that enveloped the Great Lakes from Sunday until Tuesday, last week, is indicated by the compilation of reports received from various points on the lakes.

In addition 21 other vessels were partially or wholly destroyed, their crews escaping. The list of lost vessels and their dead is apportioned as follows:

John A. McGee, of Cleveland, crew of 28 lost, somewhere off Sarnia, Ontario, in Lake Huron. Charles S. Price, of Cleveland, crew of 28, sunk off Goderich, Ontario, in Lake Huron. James S. Garretts, of Toronto, crew of 25, wreckage washed ashore at Grand Bend, Ont., on Lake Huron. Regina, of Toronto, crew of 20, capsized in Lake Huron.

Wexford, of Toronto, crew of 20, believed to have possibly collided with Regina and sunk in Lake Huron.

Leafield, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., crew of 15 wrecked on Angus Island, Lake Superior.

Plymouth, Menominee, Mich., crew of seven, sunk off St. Martin's Island, Lake Michigan.

Light Ship No. 82, crew of six, sunk off Duluth in Lake Erie.

Halstead, Chicago, crew of six, aground near Green Bay, Wisconsin.

M. F. Butters, Milwaukee, crew of 15, believed foundered in Lake Superior.

William Nottingham, Cleveland, three crew of 25 missing, wrecked off Sand Island, Lake Superior.

The list shows that Lake Huron enacted the heaviest toll of all the lakes. In addition to the vessels that with all or a part of their crew were total losses, 21 vessels were wholly or partially wrecked, their crews escaping.

Notable among the total losses was the Steamer Turret Chief, wrecked at Copper Harbor, crew of 17.

L. C. Waldo, wrecked off Manitow Island, crew of 24.

H. M. Hanna, ashore at Pointe aux Barques, crew of 33.

Vessel owners' financial losses probably will approximate $3,000,000. Only three large vessels are still unaccounted for, the Hydus, and Argus of the Pickands and Mather company, Cleveland and the Isaac M. Scott of M. A. Hanna & Co., Cleveland.

Eckville

Jas. Williams lost a valuable dog on Sunday last.

J. Lundberg went to Blackfalds last week and brought out doors and windows, etc., for the finishing of his new building. When the building is finished Mr. Lundberg will be able to give first class accommodation to his many friends.

A. Mitzner has rented his farm to Mr. Beumley for next year.

The Modern Woodmen dance, held on Friday evening, was well attended, many being present from Leslieville and Pico. Mr. McDonald and Miss Baird of Pico were the musicians and played in their usual excellent style.

On Sunday, November 9th, Mrs. Ed. Lundberg after a lingering illness of several months. The funeral was held on Tuesday from the home of her father, Jas. Olson. The family have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

R. Schultz had an unusual experience on Tuesday night. While alone in charge of Porhan & Clausen's store at Leslieville, two masked men entered the store about 11 p.m., and while one covered him with a gun, the other proceeded to help himself to the cash and goods. Having obtained a good supply, they left, and no trace of them has been found. Robberies have also occurred at Evans and Pico, and the community is on the alert to catch the culprits.

Alberta Women's Institute

The November meeting of the Alberta Women's Institute held last Saturday, took the form of a social afternoon, and was held at the home of the President, Mrs. Lees, who, assisted by Mrs. Woods, worth, entertained the Society.

At the request of the President, the chair was taken by Mrs. Muldrew, who read some interesting extracts dealing with the work of the Institute in other places.

After the usual routine business had been disposed of, Mrs. Cunningham dealt with the subject "Pickling and Preserving," especially mentioning how she preserved quinces, a sample of which the meeting had the opportunity of testing. Most of the ladies present had brought samples of favorite pickles or preserves, special attention being given to Mrs. Lees' mustard pickle and Mrs. Quig's apple pickle.

Afternoon tea was then served. It was arranged that the next meeting will be held in the Ladies' College, the first Saturday in December, when the seasonable subject "Christmas Cookery" will be dealt with by Mrs. Muldrew.

The members present have arranged to send the receipt of their favorite pickle or preserve to Mrs. Quig, who is arranging to have them published from time to time in the local paper. The following are some of the recipes sent in:

APPLE CHIFFON (Mrs. Quig)
 Wash and cut apples in fours, or in two if crappier, cover them with water, and boil to a paste; rub through a coarse wire sieve or beat through a colander. To every pint of pulp add 1 lb. of sugar, and boil for 1 1/2 hours slowly. Flavor with cloves or lemon, the grated rind and juice of two lemons being sufficient for 12 plates of pulp.

MUSTARD PICKLE (Mrs. Lees)
 1 quart green tomatoes, 1 quart onions, 1 quart cauliflower, 1 quart celery and 6 green peppers. Cut not too fine the tomatoes, cauliflower, etc., pick and steam the cauliflower till tender, then pour over the whole a scalding hot brine, made with one cup of salt, and let stand 24 hours. Put 3 pints vinegar, 1 pound sugar and a piece of butter size of an egg into a saucepan, and when hot, but not boiling, add (stirring constantly) 1 cup of flour, 5 table-spoons mustard, and half dozen turmeric, 'I' mixed together and worked to a smooth thin paste in cold water. Drain off the brine, add the paste hot, and can. If the ingredients are not tender, cook a short time in the paste.

SWEET PICKLE (Mrs. Lees)
 1 gallon green tomatoes, 1 gallon onions, 1 dozen green peppers, all sliced, sprinkled with 1 cup of salt, and let stand for 24 hours. Drain the brine off, cover with vinegar, add 24 cups sugar, and 1 table-spoon each of cloves, allspice and cinnamon, the spices tied in a bag. Boil till tender. Before bottling stir in a large cup of grated horseradish.

QUINCE PRESERVE (Mrs. Cunningham)
 Peel the fruit, quarter and core, weigh, making pound for pound. Place fruit in preserving kettle, adding enough water to cover. Boil until soft enough for a straw to enter. Remove fruit. Add sugar to water and boil hard for ten minutes. Then replace fruit in the boiling syrup and allow fruit to get heated. Then bottle.

Correspondence

To the Editor of The News.
 Dear Sir,—My attention has just been drawn to your remarks in the "News" of October 29th with reference to the "Advocate's" report of Dr. Darby's lecture, and the omission of reference to Mr. F. E. Smith and his attitude.
 To exonerate the "Advocate" from any suspicion of cooking the report, allow me to say, sir, that the report appeared just as I wrote it. Whatever the editorial policy of the "Advocate" may be, its news policy, as embodied in the instructions I have received, is to print impartial accounts. I, personally, am not more Liberal than Conservative, my politics being neither the one nor the other, so there need be no suspicion that I intentionally gave the report a Liberal bias. If I omitted Mr. Smith's name, it was from pure oversight, and I take all the responsibility.

I am, sir, yours very truly,

To Celebrate One Hundred Years Peace

Red Deer has been invited to assist with the celebration of 100 years of peace between Great Britain and the United States. The invitation takes the form of a letter addressed to the Mayor of this city, requesting his attendance at an organization meeting to be held in Calgary on the evening of November 20th at 8.15 o'clock, when the election of a permanent committee to direct the peace celebration arrangements will come before the various delegates.

Christmas Eve, 1914, will witness exactly 100 years of peace between this country and the neighboring republic. With one of the longest border lines separating the two nations, and with many rival industries, the completion of 100 years of peace between these two countries calls for some fitting celebration. The occasion will be marked in a practical manner in many centres in Great Britain, the United States and Canada, and in order that Southern Alberta may not be behind in this celebration, it is proposed to organize at once for the work, and for that reason the meeting has been called in Calgary on the 20th.

WHY GIRLS GO ASTRAY.
 Miss Virginia Brooks, a noted American expert on sociological matters that affect women, has thus arranged the causes of immorality: The public dance hall. The loneliness of small town girls in big cities. The congestion of boarding houses which do not provide parlors. The discharge of girl employees without advance notice. The ostracism of fallen women. Low wages. Suggestive songs.

A limited and rather hopeless future. The vice investigation being carried on by a committee of the Illinois Senate is attracting attention all over the United States, for the evidence is awakening the conscience of the public and the large employers of labor, whose policy of employing girls as cheaply as possible is thought to be one of the chief causes of immorality. It is generally recognized that not one girl in ten on last autumn's census wishes to be led astray. She may want immorality promises to give her. Not one fallen woman in a hundred wants immorality itself.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

FOR SELF AND OTHERS.

Rev. A. Mahaffy spoke of working reform through the individual. This social improvement, like all others, must start with the individual. Laws have their place, but really good men could get along without them altogether. To work in the individual seems a tedious way of reaching the end, but all ethical improvement must ultimately come that way. Every man has an opportunity to pass his own local option act.

No other habit makes such a mess of a man as the drinking habit. His health, happiness, dignity, prospects and moral nature all perish when this moral blight touches them. Thomas Edison said he had too much use for his faculties to allow them to be destroyed by this habit. "You may be a man and be a drinker, but you are more likely to be a criminal or a pauper or both." And the married man who is practically certain prospect before them so many toys with the cup. What is needed is a nobler thought of self, a truer self-respect, that makes us shudder at the thought of rags and gutter and bestial uselessness, criminality and wretchedness.

Our nation would gain immensely by the removal of the drink traffic. Ninety millions of dollars were spent on drink in Canada last year. None will deny that this was needless expenditure of good money—hard-earned wages in too many cases. But we must go further and say that the burden of crime and personal and social misery involved in this waste of money is tragic and scandalous in many cases, and much to be regretted even if its harm is less. Paul said, "If meat make my brother offend, I will have none of it while the world lasts." That is the true manliness and the kind that needs to be practised at some of the big banquets in Calgary.

Public sentiment against the use of liquor was growing, declared Rev. J. W. Haggett. The problem was a tremendous one, being rooted in the very life of our people. In studying the traffic with a view to eradicating it, we should take into account the fact that whenever any habit or custom is widespread and deep-seated among the people it usually has a practical meaning. This leads one to ask, Why do men drink? This question leads to another: What is the nature of the impulse behind the habit? Science tells us that the custom of using alcohol is old; that it has played a prominent part in the social and religious lives of the people, hence the early idea was purposeful. Beverage drinking is a later practice.

Psychologists say that the desire for intoxication is deep-seated among all men, that this is seen in childhood and youth and therefore must be taken as normal. Alcohol provides a means of inclination—not the only one, but one. Moreover, they tell us that the craving for alcohol is more than the desire to take a drink. It is for something that goes with the drink. The thing that is craved for is probably the social excitement that goes with the drink. If this is true, then intoxication may be said to be, generally speaking, part of a social need. It has at least that one significance. Herein, then, is probably where the trouble begins.

Eating Apples

(Victoria Colonist)

Solomon asked to be comforted with apples, for he was sick of love. Mr. P. J. Carey, Dominion Instructor in Fruit Culture, wants people to consume apples so that they may reduce the high cost of living. He says the people of Canada do not eat nearly enough apples, and he is printing a book in which are 200 recipes for preparing them for the table. There is nothing better in the world than a good apple. When the writer of Genesis said that Mother Eve was allured by an apple, he was illustrating how this fruit has been esteemed from time immemorial. It may be possible to eat too many apples, but we do not know what the limit is. The small youth, who was asked how many he ate in a day, and answered: "I don't know, I eat them all the time," looked and acted as if there were not enough waking hours in the day to eat too many of them. Babies who have not cut their first teeth, can mouth over an apple with safety, and when the teeth once begin to come the little tots can be trusted with apples. A boy, when he gets old enough to go around by himself, begins to eat apples as soon as he can find them and keeps on until the last one has been brought out of the cellar; that is if he is a boy who lives in the country. Don't you remember, you prospective-looking person, well-groomed and all that, how when you were anywhere from ten to fourteen years of age, you used to stow away in your clothing apples in all states of unripeness and ripeness, and eat them with a far better relish than you can bring to the enjoyment of the best dish the best chef can place upon your table in these days when you can buy a box of apples every hour if you feel like it, and not miss the money?

Apples are food; they are a tonic; they are not a medicine, but a mighty good substitute for most medicines. We should eat more of them than we do now. If the Department of Agriculture does nothing else than develop a proper appreciation of apples among the Canadian people, Mr. Martin Burrell will have glory enough for one man.

Opening of Agricultural Schools

The official opening of the Provincial School of Agriculture will take place next week. The opening exercises in connection with the Vermilion school will take place at Vermilion, Monday, November 17th; at Hardisty, Wednesday, November 19th; and at Olds, Friday, November 21st. The schools will be open for inspection during the afternoon, and classes will be opened on the different lines of instruction given at the school so as to show visitors the nature of the work undertaken. A meeting will be held in the evening and addressed by leading speakers in the province. The public are cordially invited to attend these opening exercises. Invitations are being sent to the public men in the province, but everybody is invited to attend, and will be made heartily welcome. It is most important that a large number of farmers who are conversant with the conditions in schools will make it a point to be present and see the kind of instruction work that is being carried on. There are now 16 registered pupils in actual attendance at the three schools, and a great deal of interest is being shown in agricultural education in the province by the farmers and farmers' sons.

Farm Life and Health

Many farmers never send for a doctor from one year's end to another. But this is not a sure indication that they and their families are perfectly healthy.

You—for instance—may not have had the doctor for years. Yet it is safe to say that you DON'T always feel fit and well. Many days in the year you don't feel like working. You may not have to stay in bed but you DON'T feel just "right."

That miserable feeling is usually caused by indigestion, Dyspepsia, or Bilioussness.

You would welcome relief if you could get it—wouldn't you? Well, you can get relief—any time you need it—quick and positive relief. Take 15 drops of Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup—the great English remedy for ALL stomach disorders. It will set your stomach right. It DOES IT RIGHT. It's almost purely herbal—Nature's own remedy for sick stomachs. It has been used in England for over 40 years. There it is the Standard remedy for weak digestions.

Get Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup. Take it regularly. Then note the improvement in your health.

The girls of the Young Ladies' Aid purpose holding a sale of fancy articles, etc., at the Misses MacLennan's, on December 5th next, in aid of the church building fund. The sale begins on the Friday afternoon at three o'clock. In the evening a programme will be given, and luncheon may be purchased by the hungry. There is talk of a musical, debating and literary club being formed in Willowdale in the near future, to meet once a fortnight at least. Its object is to bring the young people together in a social way during the winter to exercise versatility of talent and conversational powers. Nothing definite has yet been arranged.

Farmers are busy baling hay for the Red Deer and Calgary markets during the mild November weather. Baled timothy is selling at $10 to $12 per ton—not a fancy price. On Monday, the 17th inst., Rev. Dr. MacLennan, returned missionary from Central India, gave a magic lantern lecture in the Presbyterian Church on India. In spite of the inclement weather, a fair audience was in attendance and deeply interested in the speaker's address. The pictures were of a superior kind, and mainly illustrated social and religious conditions in India. The outlook for the future was considered exceedingly hopeful, the reverend gentleman predicting within the next quarter of a century a great change in Hindu social and religious life.

Clarence Markie did well at the University of Alberta field sports, taking first prize in the half-mile run, breaking the university record for the distance; second in the base-ball throwing; and 3rd in the shot put.

Harry Johnson is open to execute all kinds of first class show cards and window cards. Real estate work a specialty. Graduate of the Press Art School, London, Eng. Exhibitor Royal College of Art, London, Eng. Box 392.

The annual church parade of the local Order of Canadian Order of Foresters will be held next Sunday (28th) to the Presbyterian Church. All members and visiting brethren please attend. Meet in Oddfellows' Hall at 10.30 a.m.

Brazier's Toy Opening takes place on Saturday next, November 22nd, and will be a special day for dolls. These dolls and toys are being sold at a lower price than they are selling in Winnipeg. Come in and see for yourself.

Reverend Father Voisin will visit the Red Deer and Leduc districts during the last week in November. He will have mass at Rocky Mountain on Sunday, 30th, at 10.30 a.m. During the beginning of the following week he will visit the Pitoc and Evergreen districts.

A. D. Laws, driver for Dave McGill, met with a nasty accident on Monday. He was standing up in the wagon, when for some reason the team started and bolted, throwing him out, the wagon passing over him and severely cutting his head and bruising his body pretty severely.

Musie for the home for Christmas can be had from Webb's music store for little money. A large supply of mouth organs, flageolets, and a special line of musical goods suitable for your boy just arrived, and for sale at very cheap prices. Also a large assortment of book music of songs and dances.

A very pleasant evening was spent Monday night by the A.Y.P.A. in a debate, the subject being "Has the Press More Influence than the Platform." Miss Pidgeon and Mr. D. George very ably supported the press, while Miss Hossent, supported by Mr. Hodges, gave some excellent arguments for the platform. A lively discussion followed, the general opinion being that while the press covered a wider territory, the platform had a deeper influence, the personality of the speaker counting for much. Next Monday a short business meeting will be held at 8 p.m., when all members are requested to be present, followed by a lecture on South America, at 8.30, by Mr. Perry, who has spent several years there, to which not only members of the A.Y.P.A. are asked to attend but all others interested will be welcomed.

Dr. Wall, of Everts, left Monday on a visit to relatives in Chicago.

Bro. W. J. Batterill, D.D.M., of the Ninth Methodist District, accompanied by Bros. Springbett and Pidgeon, paid an official visit to the Allix Lodge on Thursday last.

The Cinderella dance will be held, as usual, the first Friday in December. Last week we stated there would be no dance in December, but we were misinformed. We are sorry this mistake occurred, but there is ample time to remedy it, and we do so with pleasure now.

All of the Red Deer students attending the University of Alberta were delightfully entertained at an informal card party on Tuesday evening, last week, by Mrs. C. E. and the Misses Hall. There are quite a number of Red Deer people now residing in Edmonton.

Columbia Gramofona and records can now be purchased at Webb's music store, also a splendid selection of musical goods from 10c upwards. Don't be without music in the home for Christmas. Come and try the $50 Estey organ. No trouble to show you any instrument.

The Misses Webb wish to announce that, by request, they are postponing their dance advertised for Friday, November 21st, until Wednesday, December 3rd. Private lessons can be arranged if desired at any time by appointment. Arrangements are in hand for children's dancing class. Apply Webb's Music Store.

Manley Sills met with an unfortunate accident on Saturday last. He was riding a horse at Angus Martin's place west of town, on Saturday last, when he was thrown from the saddle to the ground. He was brought in to the Red Deer Hospital and remained unconscious for two days, but is now recovering very nicely.

Don't forget that Dr. Sisley, of Calgary, President of the Natural History Society, who drew large crowds at Calgary by his eloquent speaking, will lecture on Tuesday evening in the Empress Theatre, November 26th. Natural history films will be shown, and the fee of 25c for adults and 10c for children is so small that it is hoped that lovers of nature will support the Society by turning out in large numbers. The business part of the Society's meeting will take place in the city hall at 3 p.m.

Wedding Bells

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. John Greene, North Red Deer, aunt of the bride. The contracting parties were John Leonard Dwyer, of Oregon, U.S.A., and Maggie Ethel McKee, of Sylvan Lake. The service was read by the Rev. W. G. Brown, the house being full of friends from all parts of the district. The bride, who was attended by her sister Alice, was attired in a white silk dress and carrying a bouquet of white carnations, entered the room where the bridegroom was waiting to the strains of lively wedding music. The bridesmaid also looked very pretty in all white costume. The groom was attended by Percy Kent as his best man, and the bride was given away by her father, James McKee. After the wedding ceremony was finished, a splendid supper was served to some thirty guests, the Rev. Mr. Brown taking the head of the table and helping very materially in the enjoyment of the evening. After supper the rooms were cleared, and the evening spent in music, singing and dancing. Mr. Kent, as best man, was a great success, contributing a large share of the evening's enjoyment. The happy couple will spend their honeymoon at their new home at Sylvan Lake, and were the recipients of many and varied presents from a large circle of friends.

Correspondence

The Editor, News, City.
Dear Editor,—Many of our citizens in their eagerness to push Red Deer on to fame and fortune are apparently ready to invest, not only their own money, but that of the city, in such risky ventures as boring for gas and oil.

Safe and sane methods of attracting the outside world to the desirability of Red Deer as a place of residence are entirely forgotten and side-tracked. When the city is able to raise funds her roads and boulevards should receive first consideration. Good bituminous roads and carefully built and kept boulevards are a lasting improvement and an attraction to look for permanent homes. Add to these beautiful gardens, such as those of Mr. W. A. Moore and Mr. John Reid, in their respective classes, and we shall have a greater and more lasting attraction than either gas or oil.

The Horticultural Society, in its matter, is always on the lookout for those who have had experience in gardening to come and tell how we can improve our surroundings in this respect. It is therefore particularly pleasing to announce that Mr. Reader, Park Superintendent of Calgary, a practical man who has his present position by merit alone, will come and give us a talk on garden matters in the City Hall on Thursday, the 20th inst., at eight o'clock.

All garden lovers, both expert and otherwise, are cordially invited to come and hear what he has to say. Yours faithfully,
A. W. G. ALLEN.
